

Public airwaves are meant to serve the public. Donation of free airtime to one political party in an attempt to influence the political process is not in the public interest and is against the legal obligation of the licensee. Pappas Broadcasting is undermining the democratic process with influence peddling. Where is the FCC?